Top Destination in Italy for Golf, Art & Gastronomy

Its Etruscan, Celtic, Roman, Lombard and Byzantine origins make this Region unique and multi-faceted. Bologna, Ferrara, Ravenna and all the art cities of the Region are renowned cultural destinations, where you can feel their history in the halls of ancient palaces and in the old walls that define the geometrical shape of the cities.

Emilia Romagna is also sea and fun, indeed! With more than 100 Km of sandy beaches with a wide range of hotels, restaurants, discos, cinemas, theatres, and theme and water parks. This is the Riviera of Italy.

Thanks to the Regional 20 spas and wellness centres - from the hills surrounding Parma to the beaches of Rimini and Riccione - Emilia-Romagna is an ideal place for relaxing and wellness.

Nature lovers will find two National Parks, 13 Regional Parks, 13 Natural Reserves, and many State Reserves. The Apennines, during the winter season, offers ski lovers more than 250 Km of slopes from Piacenza to the Romagna area. In the summer season you can discover this area by walking, by mountain biking, by canoeing and kayaking.

Along the 14 Food and Wine Trails and Routes, food lovers can find more than a thousand suggested stops like farms, wine cellars, cheese and ham producers and traditional workshops.

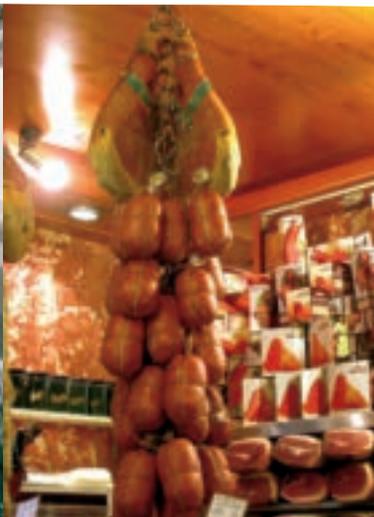

All along the ancient Via Emilia, the fans of motors can discover the supercar industry widely known as Motor Valley. Among the famous companies are Ferrari, Lamborghini, Maserati and Ducati.

But above all Emilia Romagna is also golf, plenty of top quality golf, on the days and at the times you prefer, thanks to 26 magnificent Championship courses situated close to one another and ready to welcome you 365 days a year.

Just one green fee for 26 fantastic courses and so many great holes just a few minutes away by car where you can experience the wonderful challenge of a new course every day.

Come to play golf in Emilia Romagna,

When you come to Emilia Romagna don't forget to:

Eastern area – Ravenna, Rimini, Forlì Cesena and Ferrara

- Relax on the wonderful beaches of the Adriatic coast.
- Visit Ravenna, a town famed for its incredible Byzantine mosaics and splendid monuments that UNESCO has named a World Heritage Site. See the mausoleums of Galla Placidia and Teodorico, and the Basilicas of Sant'Apollinare Nuovo, Sant'Apollinare in Classe and San Vitale.
- Take your children and the whole family to the amusement and theme parks of Mirabilandia, Aquafan and Italia in Miniatura on the Adriatic coast.
- Climb the road that leads to the top of the Republic of San Marino and enjoy the spectacular views that span from the Valmarecchia Park as far as San Leo, Torriana and Mount Carpegna.
- Spend a day relaxing in the spa town of Riolo but only after having visited the splendid fortress and medieval hamlet of Brisighella.
- Cycle along the itinerary that explores the beauty of the Po Delta Park, through the natural oasis of Comacchio and Mesola Forest.
- Spend a day walking around the splendid palaces and enchanting, narrow medieval streets of the town of Ferrara, home of the Este family and the capital city of bicycles.

Central area – Bologna and Modena

- Visit the beautiful university city of Bologna, walk along its 40 km of porticoes, spend time shopping in the Galleria Cavour, buy some gastronomic delicacies from Tamburini in the city centre and enjoy a well-deserved coffee at one of the outdoor cafes on Piazza Maggiore.
- Explore the wonderful hills surrounding Bologna and, from the centre of Bologna, climb to the marvellous Basilica of San Luca.
- Savour the delicious wines and visit the Sforza Fortress in Dozza near Bologna.
- Visit the Ferrari, Lamborghini and Ducati museums and the official Ferrari shop in Maranello, near Modena.
- Visit a winery or a balsamic vinegar producer in the area near Modena.

Western area – Reggio Emilia, Parma and Piacenza

- Explore the wonderful architecture and museums of Parma, with a special visit to the Cathedral and Baptistery.
- Visit the lands of Giuseppe Verdi and the house in Roncole di Busseto where he was born on 10th October 1813, and enjoy the magical world of classical music at the Regio Theatre in Parma.
- Savour a typically medieval meal in the castles of the former Duchies of Parma and Piacenza, surrounded by the sound of horns, epic duels, beautiful ladies and splendid noble men.
- Spend a whole day relaxing in the baths of the spa towns of Salsomaggiore and Tabiano.
- Make the most of the excellent prices offered by Fidenza Village Outlet.

1 Adriatic Golf Club Cervia

The 27 holes of this charming club wind their way through uncontaminated pinewoods and salt lakes in a setting of rare natural beauty just a short distance from the sea. The first nine holes, along the pinewood, were built as classic Scottish links, whilst the second nine, surrounded by water obstacles, were inspired by the great American courses. The third nine holes, which opened in 2004, boast a completely innovative design that guarantees that the course is extremely enjoyable. The Italian Professional Championships have been held here on several occasions, as have all the most important Italian amateur competitions. A Mecca for international tourism, the golf club is surrounded by tourist facilities including top-class hotels.

TECHNICAL DATA: Percorso "Red - Blue": 18 holes, par 72, 6,272 metres, inaugurated in 1985, designed by Marco Croze, at sea level. Percorso "Yellow": 9 holes, par 36, 3,093 metres, designed by Alvisio Rossi Fioravanti and Baldovino Dassù.

FACILITIES: driving range, pitching green, chipping green, 2 putting green, golf carts, caddies, club and trolley hire, golf school, pro shop, instructors available, bar, restaurant, car park, locker rooms for guests, games room, TV lounge and tennis. Golf School with 3 par 3 executive holes.

SEASON: open all year round, closed from 7 January to 5 February and every Tuesday, unless a bank holiday, from 1 November to 28 February.

HOW TO GET THERE: Take the Bologna - Rimini motorway and exit at Cesena. Take the provincial road towards the sea for 12 km and in Cervia, follow signs for Milano Marittima town centre and the golf club.

NEARBY: Ravenna (15 km), Rimini airport (30 km), Forlì airport (40 km), Bologna airport (80 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: The Mausoleum of Galla Placidia and Teodorico, St. Apollinare Nuovo, St. Vitale, St. Apollinare in Classe, the tomb of Dante Alighieri, the natural Saline Reserve, Cervia Spa, and Mirabilandia amusement park.

The course, designed by the famous American architect Brian M. Silva, extends over the lush green expanse of the Valmarecchia Park. All around, it offers unrivalled and truly breathtaking views of the medieval boroughs of Verucchio, Torriana and San Leo. In the background, it is possible to make out the castles of San Marino and Mount Carpegna. This beautiful, American-inspired golf course is situated just a few kilometres from Rimini and its international airport. Rimini-Verucchio Golf Club A.S.D. offers a charming course and thanks to its 18 championship and 7 executive holes, which are reserved for beginners, it can satisfy the requirements of all golf enthusiasts. Its gently rolling fairways, dotted here and there with bunkers and small lakes, guarantee that any game is just a little more demanding on the golfer. Golfers of all levels can use the splendid Golf Academy, a fully irrigated and floodlit course that is 210 metres wide and 340 metres long and has 100 positions, including 25 under cover, and directional greens.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,145 metres + 7 executive holes, 2,040 metres. Inaugurated in 1993. Designed by Brian M. Silva. 80 metres above sea level.

SEASON: Open all year. Closed on Mondays, unless a bank holiday, from November to February.

HOW TO GET THERE: From Rimini Nord exit on the A14 Bologna-Ancona motorway and head towards Santarcangelo. After the flyover, go straight at the roundabout and continue, following directions for Verucchio. About 1,000 metres after the bridge over the River Marecchia turn right at the traffic lights. Once in Villa Verucchio, turn right at the first roundabout onto Via Tenuta. The golf club is at the end of the road (about 10 minutes drive from the motorway exit). From Rimini Sud exit, take the A-road towards Bologna. At the flyover, keep to the right (pass under the flyover) then turn left towards Verucchio. In Villa Verucchio, turn right at the first roundabout onto Via Tenuta. The golf club is at the end of the road (about 10 minutes drive away).

NEARBY: Rimini Airport, Rimini and San Marino, all about 10 kilometres away.

NOT TO BE MISSED: The Arch of Augustus, the Amphitheatre, Tiberius Bridge, the Malatesta Temple designed by Leon Battisti Alberti, The Surgeon's House, Piero della Francesca's frescoes, the Rocca Malatestiana, the Museum and Archaeological Excavations in Verucchio and the delightful town of Santarcangelo di Romagna.

3 Rivieragolf

The golf course meanders along the right bank of the River Conca, an area of outstanding natural beauty and notable avifaunal interest. The 18-hole course was planned by the famous designer Graham Cooke to adapt to the gently rolling hills of the countryside near San Giovanni in Marignano. The joy of playing golf is the philosophy the course designer has succeeded in transferring to the 18 holes, which cover 6,412 metres. As well as two 18-hole putting greens and brand new pitching and chipping greens – created by emphasising the three-dimensional effect so golfers can work on their deep shots – there is a driving range with heated, floodlit stations. New for 2011, 9 Executive holes and Pitch & Putt. After the game, prepare to be pampered at Rivierabeauty where, as well as a sauna, steam bath and whirlpool course, the beauty centre offers a vast range of treatments. At Rivieragolfresort, surrounded by the lush green countryside of the Malatesta Seignory, where the tranquillity of the inland area meets the best local flavours and fragrances, guests can enjoy a wonderful mix of sport, relaxation and wellness.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,412 metres + 9 holes Executive Pitch & Putt.

FACILITIES: superior category club house and resort with 32 suites, each with its own unique style and created by several internationally-renowned designers, Tee Restaurant & Lounge, 82-metre outdoor pool in Noto stone, pool bar, Rivierabeauty and gym, with "Technogym" cardio-fitness equipment. Beach tennis and Beach volleyball courts, Practice course, two 18-hole putting green and pitching and chipping greens.

SEASON: open all year, closed on Mondays during the winter.

HOW TO GET THERE: leave the A14 motorway at Cattolica exit and head towards San Giovanni in Marignano. At the third roundabout, follow signs for the golf club that is just a few minutes drive away. GPS coordinates: 43.9497°N – 12.6913°E

Riolo Golf & Country Club 4

Surrounded by the striking chalk vein and by the green hills of the Tosco - Romagna Appennines, this modern course stretches over more than 200 hectares of green, uncontaminated nature. The layout is particularly technical with alternating flat and sharply sloping holes to test both strength and accuracy. To make the game even more exciting, there are lakes, bunkers, unexpected obstacles, and ravines - the spectacular geological phenomenon typical of the area. The attractive Club House with its wide range of facilities also caters for the needs of non-golf players.

FACILITIES: Practice course, pitching green, putting green, golf carts, club and trolley hire, golf school, pro shop, tuition available, swimming pool, bar, restaurant, car park, locker rooms, television lounge, tennis and five-a-side football, billiards and golf simulator.

5 Argenta Golf Club

Argenta's picturesque golf course features 18 holes and is located between Ferrara and Ravenna, 40 min from the sea and from Bologna. It is surrounded by the Po Delta regional park, near the Argenta natural reserve Valle Santa. The ideal location to meet sport, tourist, cultural and gastronomic demands. The course is integrated into the surrounding area following its rolling terrain and river banks. Water hazards, low dunes with groves, local essence bushes and six elevated teeing grounds are the main features of this technical and varied track. Designed by Giovanni Trasforini in 1991, with strengthened grounds and luxuriant trees, the golf club has hosted Emilia Romagna regional championships, junior and professional tournaments. In 2012, following the change of ownership, new investments on the Argenta Golf Club have led to a series of improvements. The scenic landscape, the track, the new organization, the quality of accommodation and the friendliness of the people all contribute to choosing this striking course for their golfing needs.

FACILITIES: Driving range, pitching green, putting green, practice bunker, golf carts, club and trolley hiring, golf school, pro shop, tuition, bar, restaurant, parking, locker rooms.

C.U.S. Ferrara Golf Club has a really unusual characteristic on the Italian golfing scene: situated in the enchanting area near the town park and overlooking the Estensi walls in the north of the city, it is less than 500 metres from the old town centre of Ferrara. Adjacent to the other university sports facilities, where it is possible to practice various disciplines under the guidance of expert instructors, C.U.S. Ferrara Golf Club offers rates that are accessible to everyone, thanks to a shrewd policy that doesn't only address the academic world. It was the first Italian golf course to reach a special agreement with the Italian Golf Federation. In fact, it was first extended in 1996 thanks to funding by the Federation itself, and since 2004 has offered 18 regulation holes over an interesting course marked here and there with autochthonous trees and plants.

TECHNICAL DETAILS: 18 holes, par 68, 5,446 metres, 18-hole course completed in March 2004.

FACILITIES: practice course, driving range, putting green, trolley hire, golf carts, instructors available, 4 artificial tennis courts, gym, bar, restaurant, car park and changing room.

SEASON: open all year.

NEARBY: Bologna (40 km), Padua (70 km), Venice (100 km), Lidi Ferraresi (60 km), Po River Delta and Mesola Wood (50 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: Estense Castle, Palazzo dei Diamanti, Municipal Buildings, Palazzo Turchi di Bagno, Palazzo Prosperi-Sacratì, Palazzo Schifanoia, St. George's Cathedral, Ermitage Italia Foundation, Museum of the Nineteenth Century and Natural History Museum.

7 Golf Club Le Fonti

The club is situated in the fascinating Sillaro Valley, with a mild and pleasant microclimate, surrounded by gently rolling hills. Nearby there are several important and attractive health and spa facilities, such as the Castel San Pietro Spa Centre and the Salute Più Health Village, where treatments for physical and mental wellbeing can be combined with the game of golf. The course, which stretches for a total of 6,480 metres, has 18 holes and is par 72, and is extremely varied and entertaining both for experienced players and beginners. The club house provides catering services with an excellent restaurant that develops the local traditions of food and wine with flair and impeccable hospitality. Together with the surrounding area, the course, overlooking the spa facilities and on the outskirts of the mediaeval town, offers an ample variety of opportunities for fine dining, recreation, cultural activities, sports and music that allow guests to enjoy a pleasant and unforgettable stay. In 2006 and 2007 the Le Fonti Golf Club hosted the Qualifying School of the Ladies European Tour, and in 2009, 2010 and 2011 it was chosen for an event of the Alps Tour international professional men's golf circuit. Since 2007 it has been accredited as the headquarters of the Ladies Federal Technical Centre, and it also hosts a branch of the famous Blue Team Golf Academy, which organizes individual and group golf clinics with modern coaching facilities, intended in particular for foreign tourists, with English, German and French teachers.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,480 metres, Men's Course Rating 71.9 Slope 126; Women's Course Rating 73.7 Slope 124.

FACILITIES: Driving ranges (25 open-air stations, 5 covered stations), putting green, chipping green, pitching green, practice bunker, golf carts, club and trolley hire, golf school, pro shop, golf academy, swimming pool, bar, restaurant, car park, locker rooms, TV room, meeting room, beauty and spa treatments, sauna, gymnasium and fitness room.

SEASON: open all the year round, closed Tuesdays (except bank holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: A14 motorway from Bologna to Rimini, exit at Castel San Pietro Terme, drive toward the town, and then continue to the spa (the club is opposite the spa).

NEARBY PLACES: Bologna (20 km), Imola (10 km), Brisighella (30 km), Faenza (35 km), Ravenna (60 km), Bologna airport (30 km), Forlì airport (50 km), Rimini airport (60 km).

ph. Tony Riscola

One of the classic Italian courses, designed by Cotton & Harris and built in 1959, the golf club is situated on splendid rolling countryside with marvellous sweeping panoramic views across the surrounding hills and plains. Its layout is constantly being up-dated and in recent years, it has played host to the Italian Amateur Championships many times as well as to a great number of top level professional competitions. The smart and elegant clubhouse blends in well with the surrounding countryside and is the ideal place to sample the refined cuisine of the club restaurant, which has been named amongst the top ten club restaurants in Italy on more than one occasion. The club's facilities are completed by a splendid summer swimming pool, open from June to mid-September. In 2000, Peter Alliss made some changes to the course.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 5,949 metres, inaugurated in 1959, designed by Cotton & Harris, partly restyled by Peter Alliss, 116 metres above sea level.

FACILITIES: driving range, pitching green, putting green, hire of golf carts and trolleys and sets of clubs, golf school, pro shop, bar, restaurant.

SEASON: open all year round, closed on Mondays (except bank holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: Take the Bologna - Casalecchio exit on the A1 motorway then follow the SSS 569 Bazzanese road towards Vignola - Maranello. Carry straight on for about 9 km. At the last roundabout, follow signs for Vignola - Bazzano and drive over the flyover. Just before the end of the flyover, turn left and follow signs for Ponte Ronca. After 300 metres, turn right for Bologna Golf Club.

9 Golf Club Molino del Pero

Molino del Pero Golf Club offers an 18-hole par 70 course that covers 5,480 metres and is varied, technical and fun. Set in the magnificent Apennines near Bologna, it perfectly combines the exigencies of the most skilled players with those of players who consider golf a way to enjoy the surroundings to the full. The first 9 holes, which are short and technically demanding, are perfectly complemented by the second 9 holes that are much longer and wider but equally spectacular. Thanks to the particularly pleasant climate - breezy in the summer and never foggy in winter - it is possible to play here all year round. It has a wonderful club house located in a converted hay barn and its enormous oak beams and large fireplace ensure it is always warm and welcoming. The restaurant, in the old grinding room, serves excellent quality, traditional local cuisine.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 70, 5,480 metres, inaugurated in 1991

FACILITIES: putting green, pitching green, driving range with covered positions, golf carts, club and trolley hire, pro-shop, locker rooms and car park, restaurant and bed & breakfast facilities near hole 3.

SEASON: open all year round, closed Mondays (except bank holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: the club is 25 minutes from the centre of Bologna. Simply follow the main road SS65 "della Futa" to Rastignano, then turn onto the "del Savena" road and follow directions. It is just 10 minutes from Sasso Marconi and Riveggio motorway exits. After leaving the motorway follow signs for Monzuno and then Loiano as far as the club.

NEARBY: Bologna airport (30 km), Bologna centre (25 km), Florence (75 km)

NOT TO BE MISSED: Bologna and Florence city centres.

Modena Golf & Country Club 10

The Modena Golf & Country Club is situated in a strategic position and it can be reached, quickly and easily, from any direction. In fact downtown Modena (only 10 km away), Sassuolo, Vignola, Carpi and other interesting towns are all nearby. Spread over 100 hectares and built following a design by the German champion Bernhard Langer, assisted by the American architect Jim Eng from Boulder, Colorado, this course is one of the finest in Italy. The wide greens and tees, the smoothly winding fairways, the large "hungry" bunkers and the numerous, extra-large water hazards make this course the ideal venue for top level competitions such as the Italian Open, which celebrated its 50th edition here. An executive course, a well equipped driving range and two tennis courts complete the sports facilities on offer. The club also features: a fine gourmet restaurant, where sophisticated and local dishes can be relished, a cosy bar and coffee-shop, two swimming pools, a billiard room, a gym and TV and card lounges to welcome players and their guests after their golfing "efforts".

TECHNICAL FEATURES: 18 hole "Bernhard Langer" Championship Course, par 72, 6,423 metres, inaugurated in 1990; 9 hole Executive Course, par 27, 976 metres.

OTHER CLUB FACILITIES: swimming pool, sauna, driving range, putting green, pitching green, chipping green, 2 tennis courts, bar, restaurant, pro-shop, meeting room, billiard room, bridge room, golf carts, trolleys, club hire, instructors, car park, locker rooms, TV lounge, gym.

SEASON: open all year round, closed Tuesdays (except public holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: take the A1 Milan - Bologna motorway (OPTION 1 - Northbound traffic from Bologna), exit at Modena Sud. Turn right, towards Modena, for about 5 km, as far as the four-lane motorway ring road "Nuova Estense". Turn left at the roundabout and head towards Abetone, Maranello. Continue for about 10 km, as far as Colombaro. Turn left at the roundabout and the club entrance is 150 metres away, on the right. (OPTION 2 - Southbound traffic from Milano - Parma - Reggio Emilia): exit at Modena Nord, turn right onto the motorway ring-road towards Sassuolo, continue as far as exit 18. Turn right onto the new motorway ring towards Abetone (parallel to the A1), drive all the way to the end of the ring, as far as the roundabout, turn right onto State Road SS 12 towards Abetone, Maranello. Continue for about 4 km, as far as Colombaro. Turn left at the roundabout and the club entrance is 150 metres away, on the right.

NEARBY: Bologna airport (35 km), Forlì airport (100 km), Modena (10 km), Bologna (40 km) and Reggio Emilia (40 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: the Ferrari Formula 1 Museum at Maranello. In Modena, visit the Duomo and its "Ghirlandina" bell tower, the former Duke's Palace, now home of the National Military Academy, Saint Agostino's church, the Estense Library and Museum and the Enzo Ferrari Museum. Visit Nonantola and its ancient Abbey, the piazza and castle in Carpi, Vignola and its Castle, the "Salse di Nirano" Regional Natural Park and take some time to explore some of the outstanding gourmet restaurants, which have turned the Modena province into one of the finest culinary destinations in the world.

11 San Valentino Golf Club

The San Valentino Golf Club is situated in a valley over 300 metres above sea level in the neighbourhood of the same name, in the municipality of Castellarano. It is surrounded by over 130 hectares of woodland and green pastures and boasts 4 lakes. It is a setting where the scales undeniably tip in favour of nature and the top-quality services offered blend in perfectly with the surroundings. Despite the few water obstacles, the 18-hole championship golf course is highly intriguing thanks to its hilly terrain and the considerable difference in height between the holes. The very fast greens are nearly all protected by bunkers. The width of the fairways varies, with constantly changing degrees of difficulty and emotion. The beautiful clubhouse, which covers an area of over 3,000 square metres, stands between holes 9 and 18 and welcomes players and their partners in elegant and comfortable surroundings.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,203 metres, inaugurated in 1997.

FACILITIES: putting green, pitching green with bunker, driving range with 18 uncovered and 12 covered positions, bar, refreshment stands, swimming pool, cardio-fitness gym, pro-shop, angling lake, restaurant, hotel, congress centre with a giant screen for videoconferencing, party room, games, reading and TV lounge, massage room, nature trail with gym in the wood, climbing wall and survivor course, whirlpool and golf cart and trolley hire.

SEASON: open all year round, closed on Tuesdays (except bank holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: From Reggio Emilia, take the main road to Scandiano. 1 km before the town turn right towards Baiso - Viano. After Rondinara, turn left towards San Valentino for about 7 km. From Modena, follow signs for Sassuolo and from there follow signs for Castellarano - Passo Radici. In Castellarano follow signs for San Valentino and the golf club.

NEARBY: Reggio Emilia (20 km), Modena (20 km), Bologna airport (35 km), Bologna (40 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: the cities of Reggio Emilia and Modena.

The Matilde di Canossa Golf Club, which was founded in 1987, is situated just outside the city in the heart of the marvellous "Matildic Lands". The spectacular setting offers magnificent views of an area that is full of history and tradition. In this charming context, now restored to its former magnificence, the club was set up thanks to the founding members' love for nature, passion for golf and spirit of enterprise. The course, designed by the architect Marco Croze, has 18 holes on a course of over 6,200 metres, par 72, and is characterised by a huge variety of configurations, due above all to the Quaresimo Stream that flows through the entire course. The gentle natural slopes and vegetation make the game technical, fascinating and extremely entertaining. The course is surrounded by enchanting panoramic views, offering an exciting sense of freedom and direct contact with nature.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,231 metres, inaugurated in 1987, designed by Marco Croze.

FACILITIES: driving range, putting green, pitching green, golf carts, caddies, club and trolley hire, pro-shop, instructors available, swimming pool, bar, restaurant, refreshment stands, car park, locker rooms, TV lounge.

SEASON: open all year round, closed Mondays (except bank holidays).

HOW TO GET THERE: A1 motorway, Terre di Matilde - Reggio Emilia exit, follow signs for Montecchio - Cavriago. After Codemondo, turn right towards Bibbiano Ghiardo and follow signs for San Bartolomeo.

NEARBY: Reggio Emilia (8 km), Modena (25 km), Parma (16 km), Bologna (60 km), Bologna airport (60 km), Milano airport (140 km), Brescia airport (120 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: The city of Reggio Emilia home to the Palazzo del Monte, the cathedral, Piazza Camillo Prampolini, Palazzo Vescovile, the Basilica of St. Prospero, Madonna della Ghiara Sanctuary, the Civic Museums, "Romolo Valli" Neoclassic Theatre, "Parmeggiani" Art Gallery and Canossa Castle.

13 Golf Club La Rocca

Established in 1985, La Rocca Golf Club sits on the hills that dominate Parma's plain, close to the ducal village of Sala Baganza. This is a technical and moderately difficult course set amidst oak and acacia woods and artificial lakes. The course, 18 holes, par 71, S.S.S. 71, covers 6,076 metres. In the surrounding area, in addition to Parma's monuments and museums that are only 13 km away, there are a number of interesting places such as Torrechiara Castle, Fontanellato, Colorno, Soragna and Canossa fortresses. The neighbouring Boschi di Carrega Regional Park boasts a huge variety of flora and fauna in 1,000 hectares of woods and glades. There's golf, art, history, ecology and excellent Parmesan cuisine in the ancient "Casinetto", which is now the club restaurant.

FACILITIES: driving range, pitching green, putting green, chipping green, golf carts, club and trolley hire, pro-shop, golf instructors, bar, restaurant, car park, locker rooms, TV lounge.

SEASON: open all year round, closed Mondays (except bank holidays) and the month of January

Situated on the gentle hills of Salsomaggiore and set in a natural paradise of 70 hectares, Salsomaggiore Golf & Thermae is the ideal place for a holiday break in a haven of peace and quiet, far from the noise and bustle of city life. The club, managed since 2011 by the International Golf Corporation, has been fully refurbished and now has a host of novelties, both for the game and for the services offered to guests. The course with its 18 championship holes winds through a silent and spectacular valley, due not only to the delightful landscapes but also to the playing challenges it offers. Undulating fairways and fast greens allow players of all levels to test their skills on a course that has been perfected even further, under the constant care of the greenkeepers. Golfers can take advantage of services able to satisfy all needs, making the course truly complete, with a putting green and pitching green, a comfortable club house, a swimming pool with sun terrace, a restaurant and a pro shop. Less expert players can improve their game on the practice course, followed by coaches Alberto Limonta and Norbert Aziaga. The club house, now refurbished in an elegant and sophisticated style, offers enjoyable surroundings dominated by the light colours of the furnishings and large picture windows that overlook the course and the nearby hills, and it also has a terrace giving a breathtaking view of the Emilian countryside. All services at Salsomaggiore Golf & Thermae aim to ensure the maximum comfort and modernity, but without neglecting local traditions, as in the club restaurant, for instance, which offers a variety of dishes of excellent quality, with specialities typical of both Parma and national traditions, and a wine list with an ample choice of labels, in a setting that has been renovated throughout, warm and welcoming in its simplicity.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 5,761 metres, at 360 metres above sea level with 3 lakes that affect 5 holes.

FACILITIES: driving range with 15 positions, 5 of which are covered, pitching green, putting green, golf carts, club, electric and manual trolley hire, pro shop, bar, restaurant, swimming pool, car park, locker rooms and TV lounge. The Head Professionals Alberto Limonta and Norbert Aziaga gives individual, group and golf clinic lessons for all players.

SEASON: open all year round, closed on non-holiday Wednesday from 1 October to 30 April.

HOW TO GET THERE: A1 motorway, Fidenza exit. Head towards Salsomaggiore Terme and from Via Milano drive on for 7 km towards Pellegrino.

NEARBY: Parma airport (30 km), A1 motorway (10 km), near many of the main Italian cities, Bologna (100 km), Milan (100 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: Verdi's land and the house where maestro Giuseppe Verdi was born in Roncole Verdi, Busseto, St. Agata's villa, Regio Theatre in Parma, the temple of opera and famous around the world. The Forts and Castles of Soragna, Fontanellato, Colorno and Torrechiara. The cities of Parma, Cremona and Mantova, full of art and culture. Special agreements with the well being centres of Salsomaggiore and Tabiano. Parmesan cuisine offers fabulous cold cuts and unique Parmesan cheese. Shopping at the Outlet Fidenza Village.

15 Golf Club Castell'Arquato

Inaugurated in 1991, the Castell'Arquato Golf Club stands at the point where the lush valleys around Piacenza meet the rolling hillsides of Parma. The course is set in 64 hectares of countryside at about 220 metres above sea level. It is just a dozen or so kilometres from Piacenza and near the beautiful mediaeval borough of Castell'Arquato. The course has 18 Championship holes, set in a green and meandering valley. This prestigious course was designed by Cotton & Pennick and is demanding yet fun for both expert players and beginners. Golfers can take a short break or spend a few hours relaxing in the bright, spacious club house.

TECHNICAL DETAILS: 18 holes, par 73, 6,052 metres, opened in 1991.

FACILITIES: practice course with 20 stations, 6 of which are covered, putting green, golf carts, golf club hire, electric and manual pull trolleys, pro-shop, bar, restaurant, car park, locker room, TV lounge and massage room, available subject to booking. The instructor, Antonio Pelle, is always on hand for individual or group lessons.

SEASON: open all year round; closed on Tuesdays unless a public holiday and from December 22nd to February 27th.

HOW TO GET THERE: From Milan and Bologna: Take A1 motorway and exit at Fiorenzuola d'Arda. Follow signs for Fiorenzuola and after 2 km take the ring road towards Bologna. Take the fourth exit for Castell'Arquato/Vernasca/Lugagnano. After leaving the ring road, continue for 3 km then turn left for Lusurasco. After crossing the village, turn right and follow signs for Cortina. Once out of the village of Lusurasco, go straight at the crossroads and after two sharp bends stands Cortina di Alseno. After the village, follow the main road that bends to the left. The entrance of the club is opposite Hotel Cortina. By keeping to the right of the road, you will find the green golf club gates.

Croara Country Club 16

Croara Country Club is found on Emilia's north-western border, a few kilometres from Piacenza, in a hilly area that is positively influenced by Liguria's weather. The course's particularly favourable location, halfway between the Trebbia River alluvial deposits and the foothills of the Apennines, offers a variety of views and game opportunities. You'll find 18 highly technical holes, with fairly narrow fairways, surrounded by oaks, chestnuts, poplars, and locust-trees, and fascinating scenery along the riverbanks. The course has already hosted a top-notch international event, the first Italian Women's Open.

TECHNICAL DATA: 18 holes, par 72, 6,065 metres, the first 9 holes designed by Buratti and inaugurated in 1975, the rest designed by Croze and Lo Cascio and inaugurated in 1983.

FACILITIES: driving range, pitching green, putting green, bar, restaurant, swimming pool, tennis, pro-shop, golf carts, club and trolley hire, instructors available, car park, locker rooms, TV lounge.

SEASON: Closed Tuesdays (except bank holidays) and from January 7th to February 7th.

HOW TO GET THERE: From the motorways: exit at Piacenza Sud junction. After the junctions, turn immediately right and take the ring-road towards the stadium (stadio). Continue as far as the roundabout for Genoa - Bobbio - Rivergaro (SS45) then follow signs for Rivergaro. Turn right 500 metres after the town [sign Rivalta - Croara] then follow signs for the golf club, which is 6 km from Rivergaro.

NEARBY PLACES: Piacenza (15 km), Parma (40 km), Milan (50 km), Milan airport (70 km), Bologna airport (140 km).

NOT TO BE MISSED: The medieval village and castle of Rivalta, 2 km before Croara. Statto, Rezzanello and Agazzano Castles and many others nearby. For horse riding lovers, the golf club is next to Croara Vecchia riding stables, which has a cross-country field and pleasant guest suites that are also open to golfers.

17 Golf Club I Fiordalisi

Via Maglianella 11/b - 47100 Magliano - Forlì Cesena - Italy
Ph.: +39-0543-89553 - Fax: +39-0543-89324 - E-mail: info@golclubifiordalisi.it - Web site: www.golclubifiordalisi.it

Situated within an environmentally protected area and with splendid views of the hills of Bertinoro, I Fiordalisi Golf Club is a beautifully landscaped and extremely technical standard 9-hole course. It is interesting, full of surprises for all levels and capable of testing the skills of even the most experienced golfers. It is ideal for those learning the rudiments of the game, thanks also to lessons given by qualified professionals and large practice areas. There's a spectacular water-gap driving range as well as a traditional grass one and also two executive holes, for those just starting out. The clubhouse is warm and friendly and thanks to the restaurant, situated on the "Wine and Food Route of the Hills of Forlì and Cesena", traditional cuisine is not overlooked. I Fiordalisi Golf Club is just 4 km from Bologna-Fortli airport, where all the main low-cost international flights land, and is also close to Cervia (25 km), Rimini (50 km), Le Fonti (50 km) and Bologna (80 km) golf courses.

TECHNICAL DATA: 9 holes, par 36, 3,048 metres + 2 executive holes.

FACILITIES: clubhouse, 2 putting greens, a water-gap driving range and a grass driving range, trolley and golf cart hire, secretary's office, changing rooms, golf bag room, lodge, bar and restaurant.

SEASON: open all year, closed on Mondays unless a bank holiday.

18 Golf Club "Le Cicogne" Faenza

Via S. Orsola 10/a - 48018 Faenza - Ravenna - Italy
Ph. & Fax: +39-0546-622410 - E-mail: info@faenzagolf.com - Web site: www.faenzagolf.com

Faenza Golf Club celebrated its 20 years of activity in 2011. Over the years it has grown steadily, moving on from being a promotional 9-hole practice course with FIG Italian Golf Federation certification to become a par 35 course set in greenery at the foot of the Faenza hills, technical, entertaining and fast. The alternation of narrow holes, bounded by distinctive tree plantings, and broader ones with lakes and bunkers means that every stroke must be played carefully and with great skill. The presence of a resident flock of storks that fly majestically overhead makes playing here on this delightful course just outside Faenza even more enjoyable.

TECHNICAL DATA: 9 holes, par 35, men's 2,700 metres, women's 2,445 metres, 35 metres above sea level.

FACILITIES: practice course (with covered and uncovered stations), pitching green, putting green, practice bunkers, golf club and trolley hire, pro-shop, clubhouse with locker rooms, bar, large car park.

19 Golf Club Casalunga

Viale Cà Belfiore, 8 - 40055 Castenaso - Bologna - Italy
Ph.: +39-051.6050164 - Fax: +39-051.6052186 - E-mail: segreteria@casalungagolfresort.com - Web site: www.casalungagolfresort.com

Casalunga Golf Club is located just outside Bologna, less than ten minutes from the city centre. A flat course with 9 simple holes, it is particularly beautiful and in an exceptional natural setting. In fact, it stands around a wonderful lake, a haven for numerous species of migratory birds. In technical terms, it covers 3,010 metres and is a par 36, with some particularly difficult holes that require great precision and prudence. A bar, changing rooms, gym, fitness centre and outdoor pool complete the new facilities housed in the glass and steel club buildings. It is also possible to savour sophisticated dishes served in the club restaurant, housed in the old club house - formerly a farmhouse that has been wonderfully renovated. A famous American architect is currently designing the new course.

TECHNICAL DATA: 9 holes, par 36, 3,010 metres + 3 executive holes par 3, affiliated since 1993.

FACILITIES: driving range with 30 stations, including 5 covered, pitching green, putting green, golf carts, pro shop, club and trolley hire, bar, restaurant, TV lounge, car park, changing rooms, gym, fitness centre and pool.

SEASON: Open all year. Closed on Mondays, excluding bank holidays.

Monte Cimone Golf Club

Via Libertà 53 - 41029 Sestola - Modena - Italy

Monte Cimone Golf Club was built in the shadow of Mount Cimone in summer 2003. Set in a wonderful lush green area of unspoilt natural beauty, it was built based on an initiative by the company S.I.R.S Spa, "steered" by the local entrepreneur Giampaolo Pelloni who had always believed in the resources of this magnificent territory. It is in a mountainous area, far from pollution, smog and traffic. This is almost an "enchanted" valley and is also ideal for families who wish to spend a few days breathing fresh air. The first 3 holes opened in 2005 and in 2007 work was completed on another 3 holes. Finally, in 2009 the course was finished and now boasts 9 holes. Technically, it is a mountain course that covers 2,194 metres, par 34, with undulating fairways and small greens. Hole no. 5 is especially difficult and players need to be particularly precise there. The golf club offers a bar with terrace, changing rooms, a small pro-shop, a putting green, a practice course with 10 covered stations and a pitching green area.

TECHNICAL DATA: 9 holes, par 34, 2,194 metres + 1 Executive hole, affiliated since 2009.

FACILITIES: Practice course with 10 covered stations, putting green and pitching green with bunker area, golf carts, small pro-shop, bag and trolley hire and changing rooms.

SEASON: Open from mid-April to mid-October, closed on Wednesdays in May, June and September.

Hotel Oste del Castello <sup>★★★★</sup>

...waking up in the morning between warm and crisply laundered sheets, and all around you a silence that speaks of history and nature! The chirping of birds with the whole valley as their home, the timid chiming of the clock in the town square, a woman who's just bought fresh bread and is talking to her neighbour... A ray of sunlight, authentic, invades the room, and opening the window the early morning breeze allows us to deeply breathe in all those things we our forget in our everyday lives... The Hotel Oste del Castello is an 18th-century mansion that has been restored and furnished with the finest materials of Romagna, and it brings you into direct contact with history and nature with its excellent position at the centre of the Marecchia Valley. The hotel is in the heart of Verucchio, near the main square and built on a network of caves, grottoes and tunnels of lava rock found throughout the town centre. Some of these can be admired in the Mastin Vecchio restaurant beneath the hotel or in the exclusive "Wellness Grotto". Very close there is also an archaeological area where excavations have revealed a necropolis with unique and extremely important artefacts dating back to the Etruscans and Villanovans, from the 9th to the 6th century BC. Rimini-Verucchio Golf Club is just 5 km from the hotel.

Matilde Di Canossa Golf Resort ★★★★★

In the wonderful setting of the lands made famous by Matilda of Canossa, the Matilde di Canossa Golf, Spa & Hotel Resort opened in 2009; the first golf resort in the region of Emilia-Romagna. The resort offers its guests a luxury hotel, a wellness farm and a village with elegant residences where guests can relax far from city stress yet surrounded by top-quality services. This is a unique setting that successfully combines relaxation, well-being, sport and culture. The architecture of the village is that traditionally used in the hills around Reggio Emilia, in full respect of the surrounding natural environment. The ramparts, walls and stones paving the roads and squares help create the tranquil atmosphere of a traditional country village in the Padania Plain. It is a haven where guests can relax, safe in the knowledge of being protected by continual security services. The 18-hole championship golf club which is in the resort boasts an elegant club house, a restaurant where guests can savour traditional local cuisine and a wine bar for quick lunches.
